Dearest Friend of Our Lady,

We have great news! A new Vatican Document is finally starting to enforce some of Our Lady of the Roses requests at Bayside.

The Vatican Congregation for Divine Worship has released the long-awaited new document, Redemptionis Sacramentum, calling for careful compliance with the Church's norms for the celebration of the Most Holy Eucharist. It received final approval from Pope John Paul II on March 19, and was signed by Cardinal Francis Arinze, the prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship, on March 25, the Feast of the Annunciation.

Redemptionis Sacramentum also contains reminders of some rights that are occasionally ignored. The document points out that "priests are always and everywhere permitted to celebrate Mass in Latin." And there is an explicit statement that the faithful may not be denied Communion solely because they wish to kneel when they receive the Most Holy Eucharist. The document contains a strong endorsement of private devotion to the Eucharist, and says that bishops should "diligently foster Eucharistic Adoration." And while acknowledging that bishops may allow female altar servers, Redemptionis Sacramentum indicates that it is "altogether laudable to maintain the noble custom" of altar boys.

For American Catholics, the most noteworthy part of Redemptionis Sacramentum might be the entire section devoted to the role of extraordinary ministers. "Only out of true necessity is there to be recourse to the assistance of extraordinary ministers in the celebration of the Liturgy," the document reads. It goes on to make it clear that "true necessity" should be defined strictly only when the Priest and Deacon are lacking, when the Priest is prevented by weakness or advanced age or some other genuine reason, or when the number of faithful coming to Communion is so great that the very celebration of Mass would be unduly prolonged. This, however, is to be understood in such a way that a brief prolongation, considering the circumstances and culture of the place, is not at all a sufficient reason. We have the complete 50 page Redemptionis Sacramentum document available for $5.00. It is listed in the miscellaneous section of the order form. Item #R118

Passion of the Christ movie...

This movie is the greatest work of art involving Our Lord since Michelangelo created the Pieta, says former presidential candidate Pat Buchanan. As I write this letter it has grossed $591 million worldwide. It looks as if it may be one of the greatest films of all time. And why not? It is about Our Lord's Passion, the greatest act of love of all time.

If you haven't seen the film, take your friends and go see it. Encourage everyone you meet to see it. Let us make it the most successful film ever in honor of Our Lord's Passion.

Let us pray that the hierarchy, the clergy and the laity are inspired to make a contribution to the Faith like Mel Gibson has done with the Passion movie.

Passion of the Christ Book...

The Passion coffee-table book features magnificent still photos from Mel Gibson's movie, "The Passion of the Christ," coupled with appropriate texts from the Douay-Rheims Bible. The Passion captures the most dramatic moments of the film, a film which presents the Passion account with a realism never before seen in movies about Christ. This book retells the whole story of Our Lord's Passion, as told in the film—but in pictures—with excerpts from Scriptures and the Holy Week liturgy, and a foreword by Mel Gibson.

The book includes the distinctive flashbacks that Mel Gibson included in the movie. In his EWTN interview of 1/23/04, the producer stated that the flashback not only provide much-needed breaks from the intensity of the Passion events, but also highlight their meaning. Mel Gibson explained how he purposely flashed back from the Crucifixion to the Last Supper, highlighting the institution of the Sacrifice of the Mass as the same Sacrifice is taking place in a bloody way on Calvary. An excellent apostolic tool!

We have this fantastic 143 page Passion of the Christ book available for $25.00. See the book section of the order form. Item #B341.

Pope slams "same-sex" marriages...

"And the great issue now of homosexuality in your country, that shall be on the balance that Michael holds. Unless this balance is evened by removing this evil from your country and bringing in just laws to prevent the spread of homosexuality, you cannot be saved; your country cannot be saved. Because I repeat again, as I have repeated in the past: When a country has given itself over to immorality and all pleasures of the flesh, and abominations of the flesh, then that country will fall! If you do not believe Me, My children, I say: You will read your history books, and you will find out that there was a Sodom and Gomorrah. And what did We do to that abominable city, Sodom? We destroyed it! And what did We do to Gomorrah? We destroyed it! And We destroyed all who did not follow the plan for their redemption." Jesus, November 1, 1985

In his weekly Sunday comments in St. Peter's Square, the pontiff said marriage - which the Vatican defines as a sacred union between man and woman - was a "human and divine" gift that should be defended by society.

"In our times, a misunderstood sense of rights has sometimes disturbed the nature of the family institution and conjugal bond itself," he said. "It is necessary that at every level, the efforts of those who believe in the importance of the family based on matrimony unite."

In July, the Vatican launched a global campaign against gay unions in a bid to stem the tide of widening legal recognition for same-sex marriages in Europe, North America and elsewhere.

The Vatican's orthodoxy watchdog, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, issued a document saying Catholic politicians had a "moral duty" to oppose laws granting legal rights to gay couples, and that non-Catholics should follow their lead since the issue concerns "natural moral law."

"To vote in favor of a law so harmful to the common good is gravely immoral," the document said, although it didn't specify penalties for Catholics who do.

2nd Great Depression coming soon...

Jesus - "My child and My children, pray a constant vigilance of prayer. Keep this going throughout the United States and all of the nations of the world, for there is little time left. Soon, in the plans of the Eternal Father, He shall set forth and allow to come upon mankind, a great money disaster. In this way it will prove to you that the disaster back in the 1920's, My children, was as nothing compared to what will happen now. I talk of a great depression coming upon mankind." (10-1-88)

We have a tremendous report by Donald McAlvany titled; Is America about to enter an Inflationary Depression? He tells what is coming and how to prepare for it. It is a most informative report and highly recommended. It cost $5.00 and is listed in the miscellaneous section of the order form under the title Coming Inflationary Depression R119.

Jesus wants homosexuals removed from His priesthood...

Some national studies have concluded that as much as 30 to 50 percent of the priesthood is gay. While many gay priests are celibate, the incidence of homosexuality in the priesthood has been the focus of concern for some religious leaders.

In the magazine the Catholic World Report, Jesuit Paul Shaughnessey in 2000 wrote "the ugly and indisputable facts: a disproportionately high percentage of priests is gay; a disproportionately high percentage of gay priests routinely engages in sodomy; this sodomy is frequently ignored, often tolerated and sometimes abetted by bishops and superiors."

Moral Panic in the Priesthood...

"I will not stand for My priests who condone homosexuality and allow it in My priesthood! I will not stand by and allow My priesthood to be destroyed!" - Jesus, June 18, 1982

The problem is not pedophilia...

The John Jay College has also released their survey, requested by the USCCB's National Review Board, on the sexual abuse of minors by Catholic clergy, revealing that 4% of all Catholic priests have, for the past 52 years, been found to abuse children. The study further states that 80-90% of these priests had sodomy or perverted sex with adolescent boys (ephebophilia), not prepubescent boys (pedophilia). Penn State Professor of History and Religion, Phil Jenkins, a non-Catholic and non-lover of Catholicism, states in his book "Pedophiles and Priests" that it is less than 2% of Catholic priests who are pedophiles. The real problem is consensual sex between priests with other priests or adult males. Donald Cozzens, the rector of one of the largest U.S. seminaries, St. Mary's in Cleveland, Ohio, writes that the problem is homosexuality instead of pedophilia, and that at least 40% of Catholic priests suffer from this evil disorder. Is this not one of the reasons why our pulpits are mostly silent on the immense number of infallible Church teachings on life of the unborn and the disabled, on chastity, on homosexuality, adultery, fornication, contraception? Has the Catholic Priesthood long been a 'Gay Profession' and are these priests causing the loss of faith in millions?

One of the most divulging news reports appeared in The New York Times in February, 2002. It was revealed that Pope John Paul II's spokesman told the world that homosexual men were not fit for the ordained priesthood. Dr. Joaquin Navarro-Valls, a Spanish psychiatrist, when questioned whether ordinations of gays were even valid, said "People with these inclinations just cannot be ordained. That does not imply final judgment on people with homosexuality, but you cannot be in the field (priesthood)." No one at the Vatican appeared to support Navarro-Valls' statement. However, Canon Law does support his statement, saying that men with impediments or irregularities, including psychic disorders, are unqualified and are prevented from receiving Holy Orders (c.1040, 1041)

Homosexuals (virginal or non virginal) cannot be ordained to the priesthood. God does not call objectively disordered men to the priesthood. Why do some theologians find it so 'harsh' to eliminate the virginal and non virginal homosexual? We eliminate others who are equally unsuitable (women cannot be ordained to the priesthood), why not the homosexual who is most dangerous to the souls of his flock?

Please pray much for the priests...

Since the early 1970's, Our Lady of the Roses Shrine has held a Holy Hour for the clergy every Sunday morning from 10:30am till noon, outside in rain or snow all year long. Will you join us each Sunday at this time in prayer to save our priests?

Voting for Pro-choice or Pro-abortion politicians is a mortal sin...

"For that reason among many, the United States will suffer unless there is placed into your government a group that fears the Lord if they cannot love the Lord. They will fear Him and find measures to stop the slaughter of the unborn." - Our Lady of the Roses, April 14, 1984

To be Catholic is to be unconditionally pro-life...

Quoted in Time magazine (April 5, 2004), a Vatican official has said, "People in Rome are becoming more and more aware that there's a problem with John Kerry, and a potential scandal with his apparent profession of his Catholic faith and some of his stances, particularly abortion."

The sin of omission...

The clergy have the grave responsibility to inform their flock that it is a mortal sin to vote for a pro-choice or a pro-abortion politician. They risk the fires of hell if they do not speak out. On October 6, 1980, Our Lady of the Roses said:

"The sin of omission shall condemn many to hell, be they layman or Hierarchy. I repeat: not the sin of commission, but the sin of omission will commit many to hell. Among them there will be also mitres."

It is a mortal sin to vote pro-choice or pro-abortion politician...

Surveys showed that in the 2000 election only 50% of those calling themselves Christians were registered to vote. On election day, only half of the Christians who were registered actually went to the polls. Voting is not only our right but a duty under certain circumstances.

According to Fr. Heribert Jone, "Voting is a civic duty which would seem to bind at least under venial sin whenever a good candidate has an unworthy opponent. It might even be a mortal sin if one's refusal to vote would result in the election of an unworthy candidate."

"All who become part of or condone abortion, the murder of the young, shall be destroyed!" - Jesus, June 2, 1979

Senator Kerry has publicly opposed a Vatican decree issued in 2003 which stated that Catholic politicians have a duty to uphold the Church's "non-negotiable ethical principles," such as opposition to abortion and same-sex unions. This Vatican decree warns politicians "who are directly involved in lawmaking bodies [that they] have a grave and clear obligation to oppose any law that attacks human life. For them, as for every Catholic, it is impossible to promote such laws or to vote for them.... In this context, it must be noted also that a well-formed Christian conscience does not permit one to vote for a political program or an individual law which contradicts the fundamental contents of faith and morals."

This Vatican decree speaks directly to Senator John Kerry. His response?

According to the Associated Press, John Kerry responded to the Vatican decree by saying that he believed "in the Church and I care about it enormously. But I think that it's important to not have the Church instructing politicians. That is an inappropriate crossing of the line in America." Kerry also said, "I don't think people want questions about character," in response to accusations by the White House (Fox News, March 28, 2004).

To add injury to insult, Kerry proclaims himself to be a faithful Catholic. Barbara Kralis writes:

"... John Kerry also says that he is a faithful Catholic in good standing, yet promises Americans that if elected: I will not overturn Roe v Wade; I will not appoint judges hostile to 'choice'; I will allow poor women to have free abortions; I will never outlaw abortion; I will increase American taxpayer's dollars on population control efforts around the world. In other words, Kerry has set himself outside of the Catholic faith and has incurred, according to canon law 1398, a common excommunication, latee sententiae, a censure incurred by the very fact of committing a crime."

Bishop Burke tells pro-abortion politicians they will be denied Holy Communion...

Catholic Church officials and pro-life activists are defending La Crosse Bishop Raymond Burke's order to withhold the sacraments from Catholic lawmakers who support abortion or euthanasia, claiming it is a necessary motion for upholding Catholic law.

In a pastoral letter made public Jan. 8, Burke ordered priests in the 19-county La Crosse diocese to bar any politicians who advocate pro-choice policies from receiving Holy Communion. He also condemned contraceptive use, claiming it works as "the port of entry for the culture of death."

It is greatly inspiring to the Catholic Faithful to see a Bishop who has the guts and courage to stand up for the Catholic Faith. God bless Bishop Raymond Burke! Pray that the Church may be blessed with more Catholic leaders like him. See <http://www.tldm.org/News6/BishopBurke.htm> If the America doesn't stop abortion we will be destroyed.

We have a special report on Catholic teaching on voting available for $1.00. See the miscellaneous section of the order form. Item #R117

A Nun's final words of wisdom...

This newsletter is filled with so many dire topics so here is a story on the lighter side.

Once upon a time there was a wise old Mother Superior from county Tipperary who was dying. The nuns gathered around her bed trying to make her comfortable. They gave her warm milk to drink, but she refused it.

One nun took the glass back to the kitchen. Remembering a bottle of Irish whiskey the nuns had received as a gift the previous Christmas, she opened and poured a generous amount into the warm milk. The nun took the glass back to Mother Superior's bedside, and held the glass to her lips. Mother drank a little, then a little more. Before they knew it, she had downed the whole glass, down to the last drop. "Mother," the nuns asked earnestly, "please give us some wisdom before you die."

"Mother Superior slowly raised her head, and with a pious look on her face, whispered, "Don't sell that cow!"

Our Lady has many pleasurable surprises for us...

"My son has placed many surprises, pleasurable surprises for our children on Earth who are working with us to outwit the Enemy of God! Do not be surprised when you are visited by many personages from the Kingdom. This will be truly the AGE OF REVELATION to many. I say this to you, my children, with great joy of heart." (12-31-72)

Mankind shall feel the Sword...

St. Michael - "Mankind shall feel a sword upon his world. The Eternal Father has endured your apostasy, your arrogance, your heresy much too long! As an errant and ungrateful generation given to sin and abominations of the flesh, you shall be forced to your knees by trial." (7-15-77)

The just shall speak of judgment...

The mouth of the just shall meditate wisdom, and his tongue shall speak judgment. (Psalms 36:30)

The following are parts of the message concerning the wrath of God.

Our Lady - "We do not wish division in My Son's House, My children. United you will stand, and divided you will fall."

"Do not make a mockery of the Sacraments in My Son's House. Do not blaspheme in My Son's House. My children, you will bring the wrath of God upon you." (12-7-76)
